Faculty Course Review Checklist

Faculty Name: Course:

Exemplary and effectively implemented online courses should include essential or core components.

Directions: Place a checkmark before each statement to indicate which of these are included in your course. This checklist is for your information and will be submitted to the Center for Teaching and Learning Excellence along with your course.

I. Course Overview and Introduction

- ☐ Welcome message motivates and relates course to learners, gives a preview of course
- ☐ Clear instructions on how to get started and where to find course information
- ☐ Syllabus is present and follows HCC guidelines
- ☐ Initial activities/assignment help build learning community in the online environment (Includes discussion forum for student-student introductions)
- ☐ Course includes discussion area where students can post general questions and communicate (Help Forum)
- ☐ Instructor Curriculum Vitae (CV) is posted within the course

II. Instructional Materials, Technologies, Learner Activities and Interaction

- ☐ Course content and learner activities are clearly aligned to CSLOs and Core Competencies
- ☐ Clear explanations are provided for purpose and use of instructional materials and learning activities
- ☐ Various learning styles are incorporated into course
- ☐ Information linked to course is functional
- ☐ Learning activities provide opportunities for interaction (i.e., Interactive discussions, group work, blogs)

III. Assessment

- ☐ Assessments are varied and aligned to measure the stated learning objectives, outcomes and competencies
- ☐ Course provides learners with multiple opportunities to self assess (Includes activities such as quizzes, puzzles, games, review questions, reflections, etc.)
- ☐ Course contains a minimum of three assessments (i.e., pretest, chapter quiz, a discussion or any graded assignment that monitors student comprehension of the course material)

IV. Accessibility and Usability

- ☐ Course format is uncluttered and easy to navigate
- ☐ Course is ADA complaint